Your Eminence!

Please accept my heartfelt congratulations on the day of commemorating your heavenly patron - St. Sergiy, Hegumen of Radonezh.

In the past years, various obediences have been entrusted to you, which you have invariably striven to fulfill with diligence and responsibility. It is gratifying to note that, working now as head of the Patriarchal Exarchate of South-East Asia, you are doing much for the all-round development of the church life in this domain of God.

I prayerfully wish you inexhaustible strength and success in your future archpastoral service.

May the merciful God keep you in good health for many years.

With love in Christ,
